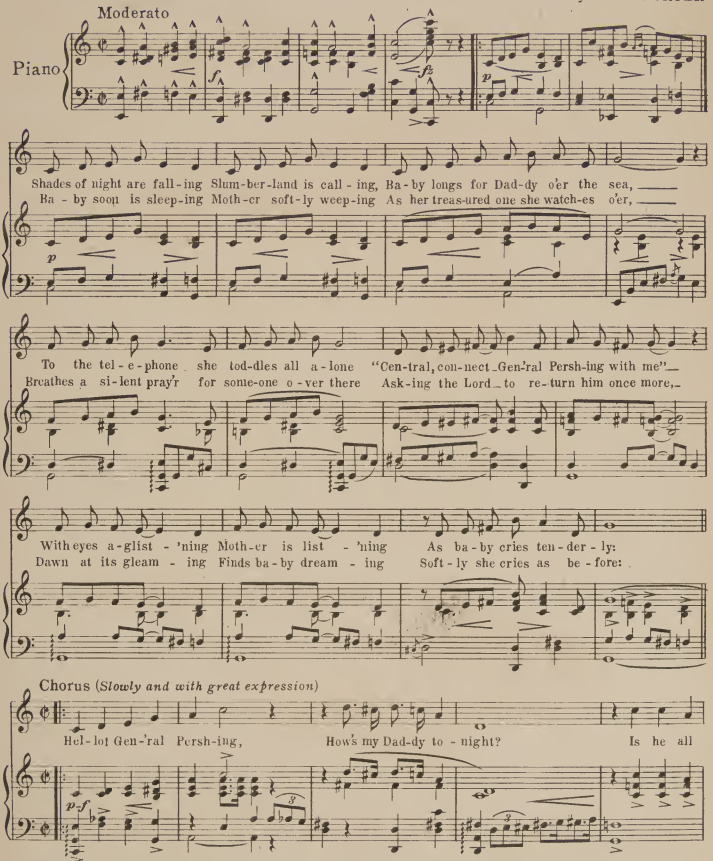
Hello! Gen'ral Pershing

(How's My Daddy To-Night?)

By LEW PORTER



Moderato
Piano
Shades of night are fall-ing Slum-ber-land is call-ing, Ba-by longs for Dad-dy o'er the sea,
Ba - by soon is sleep-ing Moth-er soft-ly weep-ing As her treas-ured one she watch-es o'er,
To the tel-e-phone she tod-dles all a-lone "Cen-tral, con-nect Gen'ral Persh-ing with me"
Breathes a si-lent pray'r for some-one o-ver there Ask-ing the Lord to re-turn him once more,
With eyes a-glist-'ning Moth-er is list-'ning As ba-by cries ten-der-ly:
Dawn at its gleam-ing Finds ba-by dream-ing Soft-ly she cries as be-fore:
Chorus (Slowly and with great expression) Hel-lo! Gen'ral Persh-ing, How's my Dad-dy to-night? Is he all right, Oh! won't you tell me At home we miss him so It seems so long a-go Since he went o-ver there With you to do his share, But you can keep my Dad-dy Till the war has been won Then send him home A-cross the foam We're oh! so lone-ly and we dream a-bout him But while you need him we must do with-out him Hel-lo! Gen-'ral Persh-ing, God bless you, Good-bye. bye.
